Question 1

How do you put a giraffe into a refrigerator?

Scroll down to find the answer. How did you do?

The Answer

Open the refrigerator, put in the giraffe and close the door.

You need to do simple things in a way that doesn't overcomplicate matters.

Question 2

How do you put an elephant in a refrigerator?

Scroll down for the answer.

Did you say 'open the refrigerator, put in the elephant and close the door?' Wrong answer.

The correct answer is: open the refrigerator, take out the giraffe, put in the elephant and close the door.

This tests your ability to think through the repercussions of your previous actions.

Are you doing well? Try Question 3.

The lion king is hosting the annual conference for all of the creatures in the jungle but one does not attend. Which animal is that?

The answer.

The elephant. The elephant is in the refrigerator. You just put him in there. This tests your memory.

One more to go.

There is a river you need to cross but it is used by crocodiles and there is no bridge and you have no boat. How do you manage to cross?

The answer: you jump in the river and wade or swim across. Have you been listening? The crocodiles are at the meeting.

This tests your ability to learn from your mistakes.

According to Anderson Consulting Worldwide, around 90% of the professionals they tested got all of the questions wrong but many pre-school children got several correct answers. This conclusively disproves the theory that most professionals have the brains of a four-year-old
